Wyo. Air National Guard Air Show features three aerobatic performers

CHEYENNE, Wyo. – Three aerobatic performers will showcase their abilities at the Wyoming Air National Guard Air Show on July 26.

The public is invited to attend the air show from 8:30 a.m. to 3:15 p.m. Along with the acrobatic performers, the free event will feature equipment and aircraft static displays and flyovers highlighting the diverse mission capabilities within America's armed forces.

Aerial acrobatics will be performed by John Klatt flying a S-300. Stunt pilot and motivational speaker Greg Poe will thrill the crowds in his Edge 540. And Gary Rower from Vintage Airshows will entertain the crowds as he loops high above their heads in a Stearman.

Numerous static display aircraft, including the C-5A, UH-60, C-130, F-15 and A-10, will be parked. The B1 and F-117 Stealth Fighter will perform flybys. The U.S. Air Force Academy's Wings of Blue parachute team will also perform.

The U.S. Air Force Thunderbirds F-16s are among the aircraft also featured at the event. The group's aircraft will be available for viewing before and after their aerial performance at Laramie County Community College.

Because of security and parking restrictions, only vehicles equipped with a handicapped sticker will be allowed to park on the base. Visitors to the air show will need to park at the Frontier Mall, 1400 Dell Range Blvd., and take a shuttle bus to the Wyoming Air National Guard base.
